ARMSTRONG SAYS HE TURNED BONDS COIN OVER TO THE PHOENIX

formerly of Honolulu and lately of from justice, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

The arrest was the result of the receipt by the police of cablegram from Sheriff Rose of Honolulu, which stated that Armstrong was wanted in the on ice." islands on a felony embezzlement charge. An officer will leave Hono-lulu July 15 to take him over after extradition

"As far as I know this must have something to do with my handling of $3000 worth of securities for the Loyal Order of Moose of Honolulu, for which I was trustee," said Armstrong in the prison. "There was internal trouble in the order and I turned that amount over to the Order of Phoenix, into which the Moose were reorgan-

RIGID INSPECTION IS NEEDED IN FISHMARKETS SAYS FOOD INSPECTOR

A special report on the condition of the fishmarkets, made at the sugges-tion of Governor Pinkham, was sent to the board of supervisors today. The report is made by A. W. Hansen, food commissioner and analyst. He finds that while the condition of the markets is not bad, there is a great need of rigid inspection. He says in part: "These particular inspections cov-ered a period of three days and the specific object in view was to decide whether or no in my opinion it would be desirable to have one or more fish FORT AND MERCHANT STREETS inspectors at these markets regularly. The conclusion reached was in accordance with that held previously, namely, that the fishmarkets' should be subjected to the regular and competent inspection. "The above recommendation is not made because of the number of fish which we found it necessary to condemn during these three days of inspection-four small lots in all-but rather because of the positive menace to the lives of the consumers of such partially decomposed fish,

"I do not believe that the present condition of the fishmarkets should be termed as bad, but when one considers the amount of meat and fish sold, William F. Armstrong, 35 years old, the rapidity with which such food spoils in this hot climate and the great held in the City Prison as a fugitive danger to human life that might result from eating of such partially decomposed food, it can readily be seen that constant and intelligent inspection is almost imperative. This is especially true of fish that have been The report was referred to the health committee.

HIS HONOR HAS BAD LUCK CHOOSING MEN FOR JANITORIAL JOBS

News was taken to Mayor J. J Fern late yesterday afternoon that his late appointee, Sam Pookalani, janitor of the municipal building, anguishes in the city and county fail, having been sentenced by the district jects. Phone 1045. court to pay a fine of $10 , which sum Pookalani lacked and therefore was obliged to go to jail.

His Honor seems to be under dark cloud of misfortune, so far as cipal building go. It was only a little while ago that M. J. Dennis, while acting as the janttoral official for the building, was caught in the act of taking a few silver coins from the safe in the building and plumbing inspector's office, a trap having been set for him. Clement-street druggist, convicted of lani as his successor. And now Poo-annoying little girls, was sentenced kalani has "gone and got in jail," thus opening a question of whether ary by Judge Frank Dunne. the mayor and other officials in the Raich was arrested several months building should pool enough money
